Whatever type of dog you prefer or identify with, whether you own a dog or not, this workshop, based on the book: What Kind of Dog Are You? is a fun way to learn more about yourself and others, and in the process:

Meet others with similar styles and personalities.

Participate in a variety of fun, interactive exercises and discussions.

Use this information for personal and professional development.

Improve your relationships with others at work and in your personal life.

And just have a great time.

To find out more, participate in a program, set up a program for your group, or become one of our national facilitators, check out our Web site at www.whatkindofdogareyou.com or call us. We're currently setting up programs in the San Francisco Bay Area, and plan to roll out this program nationally in a few months.
